

1993 local spatial development plan for Łódź

DEVELOPMENT PLAN SYNTHESIS

"To satisfy the collective needs of the community is an intrinsic responsibility of the local government, in particular, its intrinsic responsibilities encompass the issues of spatial organisation, land management and environmental protection"

Local Government Act of 8 March, 1990, Article 7 Paragraph 1
(Journal of Laws No. 13, item 74, of 1996)

"The land use and land development principles shall be established in the local spatial development plan"

Development Planning Act of 7 July, 1994, Article 2, Paragraph 1
(Journal of Laws No. 15, item 139, of 2001)

- Central multifunctional areas
- Tertiary areas in the central zone
- Areas of the green ring of tradition and culture
- Tertiary areas
- Housing areas
- Industrial areas
- Production and servicing service areas
- Forest areas
- Urban greenery areas
- Agricultural areas
- Airport
- Motorway
- Main roads
- Other primary roads
- Rivers and reservoirs

The development plan for Łódź was adopted under the Łódź assembly's resolution No. LVII/491/93 of 2 June, 1993

Łódzkie Region's Official Journal No. 6, item 71, of 21 June, 1993

The plan was developed on commission from the Łódź city board at the tup-sarp design studio attached to The Cities and Estates Development – Land Ltd. (Przedsiębiorstwo Zagospodarowania Miast i Osiedli Teren Sp. z o.o., Łódź, Piotrkowska 118).

Author: General Designer – Kazimierz Bald at al.

1 : 50 000